Confessed Five Murders.

Morris Cremeans was hanged at Pearisburg, Va., at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon for the murder of John Kidd, an inoffensive old man, on the night of April 24, 1905. He walked with a firm step to the scaffold and died game, as he had often stated he would do. He charged that the witnesses had sworn falsely against him and criticised Judge Henson for not continuing his case. About 40 persons witnessed the execution.

Before the death penalty was inflicted Cremeans confessed to many crimes, including five murders and one safe robbery. He stated that he had been in jail 37 times. The story of his life is remarkable for the long series of crimes committed by him. The crime for which Cremeans was hanged yesterday was brutal. He visited the home of old John Kidd, presumably to see his daughter. The old man remonstrated and requested him to leave. Cremeans deliberately shot him dead. He escaped, but was afterward arrested at Bluefield. He was tried, convicted and sentenced, but a stay of execution was granted until an appeal to the Supreme Court could be made. The judgment of the lower court was confirmed. During the February term of court March 23 was set for the day of execution, but Governor Swanson granted a reprive of 15 days in order to give the condemned man time to prepare for death. During his incarceration the man often cursed his spiritual advisers.

Cremeans said the first person he killed was a negro boathand on the Ohio river, with whom he worked. He escaped punishment for this. His second murder was that of the man who 20 years before had killed Cremeans' father. He said he assisted in the murder of "Dock" Hairston and Minnie Gentry in Bluefield in 1900. They were killed for their money—$7.50. He stated that Vince Schrader is now serving a term in the penitentiary for robbing the postoffice at Rock Gap, Va., while Cremeans was the guilty man. During his 37 terms of imprisonment he served a term each in the Virginia and West Virginia penitentiaries.

Cremeans was the son of a Confederate soldier and was born in Virginia. His widow and one son live in Bluefield, W. Va. Two of his children died years ago. Since he had been imprisoned in the Pearisburg jail his only daughter, Daisy Cremeans, committed suicide at her mother's home.

In the early history of Bluefield a negro cook on the material train was killed outright by Cremeans. No one saw it except a policeman, William Chandler, and Cremeans then killed Chandler. He helped carry him to the house of his uncle, Nelson McClaughertys, where Chandler died in 30 minutes. Cremeans was detailed to keep the body of the negro at the courthouse. He says he was present at the postmortem examination and saw the doctors probe for the bullet. The negro had 16 cents in his pocket, with which Cremeans bought cigars and smoked while he watched the corpse.

At Maysville, Ky., while attempting to blow open a safe all his associates were killed and Cremeans got a bullet in his shoulder, which was never removed.

Dowie to Work a Miracle.

John Alexander Dowie, first apostle of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, on Thursday night started from the City of Mexico for Chicago, where he will confront the church leaders who have revolted against him. Dowie was in good health and spirits and indignant at the recalcitrant conduct of the men, who, according to letters in his possession, were professing loyalty to him a week ago. In an interview Dowie reviewed the history of his church and spoke of its spread not only in the United States, but in Europe. He also defended himself against all the charges that had been brought against him.

A dispatch from Chicago says that Dowie will signalize his return to Zion City by some great miracle which will confound his enemies and rally the people to him once more was the report that caused excitement in Zion City yesterday. Knowing Dowie's love for the spectacular and melodramatic, the men who have read him out of his own church took the report seriously. Just what shape the "miracle" will take is not known.

Meantime the Voliva forces in their battle for freedom solemnly vowed at morning prayer yesterday to stand by the newly appointed general overseer, and, if necessary, to prevent by force the entry in Zion of the deposed "first apostle."

Dowie, in a secret message to a deacon who still remains loyal, promises to bring $10,000,000 in gold, left him by the late Baron Hirsch to aid in delivering the Jews from Russia.

He wired he also would bring several scrolls of parchment on which are written the five books of Moses. These are said by Dowie to have cost $2,000.

Arrayed in his new robes to represent a reincarnation of Moses and with the scroll in his hand, he will step from the train at Zion City, and there, he says, the miracle will occur.

On top of all the accusations against "Elijah III, Moses II, first apostle," general overseer, etc., comes the charge, a relatively mild one, that he gambled away enormous sums in Wall street. Voliva, it is said, has found a brown leather ledger revealing the heavy speculation on the New York Stock Exchange.

He opened speculative accounts with four prominent New York Stock Exchange houses, and three of the firms went out of existence soon after Dowie had deposited his liberal margin for the protection of his holdings. It is roughly estimated that $1,200,000 was lost by the "prophet" during the slump of 1903. It is not shown where this money was obtained.

It was declared that at a meeting of the women of Zion Church held yesterday Mrs. Dowie, who has repeatedly declared that she had left her husband, announced her intention of standing by him. She declared in that meeting that while Dowie had unquestionably sinned, it was the work of an unclean spirit that had entered into him, and asked the prayers of the women present to aid in the casting out of the evil spirit.

Vesuvius Causes Panic.

The inhabitants of the villages in the vicinity of Vesuvius are in a condition bordering on panic. Many homes have been abandoned for the open air, although there was a thick fog yesterday and the atmosphere was dense with volcanic ashes and the fumes of subterranean fires. The churches are crowded day and night with people praying for deliverance from an impending peril, manifestations of which are heard and felt in explosions which resemble a heavy cannonading and in the tremblings of the earth, which are constantly recurring. The main stream of lava proceeding from Vesuvius is 200 feet wide, and it advances at times at the rate of twenty-one feet in a minute, the intense heat destroying vegetation before the stream reaches it. The peasants of Portici, at the west foot of Vesuvius, cleared their grounds of vineyards and trees in the effort to lessen the danger from fire, and resisted the progress of the lava to their utmost. The population of Boscotrecase, on the southern decivity of the mountain, has sought safety in fight, and Bosco Reale, to the eastward, is also threatened. Women of this village, weeping with fright, carried a statue of St. Anne as far as they could go to the flowing lava, imploring a miracle to stay the advance of the consuming stream.

The cemetery at Boscotrecase has been invaded by lava. The scene at night is one of mingled grandeur and horror, as from the summit of Vesuvius there leaps a column of fire fully a thousand feet in height, the glare lighting the sky and sea for many miles. Occasionally great masses of molten stone, some weighing as much as a ton, are ejected from the crater. The village of Torre Del Greco, which has been eight times destroyed, and as often rebuilt, is again threatened, and the inhabitants are in extreme terror.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 7, 1906.

REVISION OF the tariff can come only as the result of a democratic victory in the next election. This is the virtual declaration of Speaker Cannon in the statement issued by him yesterday and published in the Gazette of that day. The publication of a letter written by Mr. Cannon to a friend in Ohio, and reference to the missive by Mr. Rainey, of Illinois, in the debate in the House, caused the Speaker to break his general rule and to give an authorized statement expressing his views on the subject of tariff changes. Two significant sentences have been accepted by republicans and democrats alike as an open defiance of the tariff revision sentiment of the country, and an announcement that, so long as he is Speaker, Cannon will fight every effort to change the present tariff law. The sentences read:

Our friends the enemy insist upon an immediate revision of the tariff. If a majority of the people demand immediate general revision, they will elect a majority of the Representatives in favor of immediate general revision.

No such emphatic utterance had been made by the "stand-patters" as this, and the unmistakable intention of the Speakor to serve notice upon the American people that they can hope for no readjustment of tariff schedules from a republican majority in the House, is commented upon as meaning also that a republican victory this fall will be accepted by the Speaker and those who think with him as an indorsement of the "stand-pat" policy. Inasmuch as this is a virtual repudiation of the national platform, which declared in favor of tariff changes by the friends of the protective system, it is believed that Mr. Cannon has determined to inject the tariff issue into the coming campaign, with himself as the leading champion of the present system.

DETERMINED that the law forbidding the sale of cigarettes to minors shall be enforced, the Society to Protect Children From Cruelty and the Women's Christian Temperance Union in Philadelphia started a crusade yesterday against cigarette dealers in all parts of the city. Evidence has been obtained against many, and several arrests will follow. The action is the result of a mass meeting of eighteen public-spirited organizations held on Wednesday night. The pernicious habit of cigarette smoking by children has grown to such an extent throughout the country that drastic measures must be resorted to to overcome it.

THE Burmese woman must make an excellent wife. A Singapore paper says that her highest ambition is to maintain her husband in lordly idleness and to supply him with abundant funds for cock fighting, bullock cart racing and gambling. And many of the Burmese women do big deals in timber, buying up in advance the "paddy" crops of a whole district, and so on, on a scale that requires big financing. When the Alexandria men read this many of them will seriously consider the proposition of going to Burmah.

THE delay of a final break between the anthracite operators and the miners is an encouraging symptom. There would not be so much parleying if there were any defensible ground for a strike. The responsibility is so serious that even if the parties to the quarrel were anxious for a trial of strength they hesitate to begin the fight. Every day of inaction makes a final understanding more probable.

THE State of Maryland has undertaken to build a modern macadamized highway from Baltimore to Washington. Enterprises of that sort in any State are signs of a liberal public spirit and of a farsighted disposition to reap the benefits of an enlightened good roads policy.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

The real reason that no agreement has yet been reached for a vote on the railroad rate bill is that neither side yet feels confident of having enough votes to win. The two main issues are the scope of the possible proceedings in court after the Interstate Commerce Commission has decided that a certain railroad rate is unjust; and whether, pending litigation in court, the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission shall remain effect or not Senator Tillman said today. "The President has apparently burned his bridges behind him. He has advanced a proposition which is acceptable to a majority of his own party and he has called in the assistance of the democrats. Under these circumstances the democrats have a right to insist upon the inclusion in the bill of certain things they demand. We have 25 democratic votes we can depend upon with a possibility of 28 for a limited court review amendment and a no-suspension or anti-injunction provision. After Senator Bailey's speech on Tuesday, in which, as he says, he proposes to put to shame Knox and Spooner from a legal standpoint, it is possible that some of the weak kneed democrats will be brought into line. We have this many democratic votes to offer the President in support of his policy, which he has declared is the same as ours, and whatever number we lack is for him to supply from the republican ranks." This statement from Senator Tillman shows he absolutely requires 17 and possibly 20 republicans to join with the democrats in order to make up the necessary 45 votes to secure the adoption of the limited court review amendment demanded by his faction. It would appear that the probabilities favor the final adoption of a broad court review amendment.

William Alden Smith, republican, today announced that he is a candidate to succeed United States Senator Alger, who has announced that on account of ill health, he will not be a candidate to succeed himself. A more formal statement will be issued by Smith on Monday.

The State Deparpartment has conveyed to the Russian Ambassador the dissatisfaction by the South American republics with the date selected for The Hague conference, the first half of July. The Pan-American Congress is to be held at Rio de Janeiro July 21, and the South American states say that if The Hague date is not changed they will not be able to send delegates there. If Russia insists on the time chosen, the United States will send delegates to both conferences, but will make further representations on behalf of the Latin American states to have a later date set.

The postoffice appropriation bill will continue before the House as the important business of next week, when a vote will probably be reached on it. Monday will be District of Columbia day, when a measure looking to an increase of the salaries of Washington school teachers will be considered. The pure food bill will be called up on Tuesday and remain before the House as a special continuing order, without the right to displace appropriation bills, however. Friday will be devoted to private pension bills. After the postoffice appropriation bill shall have been disposed of, the agricultural appropriation bill will be submitted. The railway rate bill will continue to occupy the attention of the Senate next week.

Representative Longworth, of Ohio, President Roosevelt's son in-law, will respond to a toast at the Appomattox Day banquet at Chicago, April 9. In the main his remarks will be directed to the needs of party organization and of resisting the clamor of the sensationalists who are attacking the public men of the day. Mrs. Longworth will accompany her husband to Chicago, and will hear his speech.

Moorefield Storey, of Boston, president of the Anti-Imperialist League, was heard today by the House committee on insular affairs in favor of the McCall resolution directing the President to reach an agreement with the foreign nations of the world that they keep hands off the Philippines should they be given their independence.

Representative Humphrey, of Washington, a member of the Merchant Marine Commission appointed by Congress two years ago to make an inquiry into the state of American shiping called at the White House this morning. He told the President that unless a subsidy of some sort is granted the owners of American ships, Japan will eventually drive all American craft from the Pacific.

The prospects for a settlement of the trouble between the master plumbers and the journeymen who were locked out five weeks ago are bright. It is said the journeymen will go back to work practically under the operations of the old contract.

The Government Printing Office.

The dismissal of about one hundred printers employed at the government printing office was ordered yesterday by Mr. Stillings, the public printer and the order goes into effect at once. The men dismissed are known as temporaries, and were taken on at different times to facilitate the extra work entailed by the session of Congress. It was stated that the reduction was made necessary by a lack of work, although Congress in still in session. It was also explained that there has been a marked increase in the amount of typesetting accomplished since Mr. Stillings assumed charge of the office, and this had resulted in cleaning up pretty much everything in sight.

Announcement was also made that the resignation of Mr. Patrick G. Byrne, foreman of the bindery, has been accepted, to take effect April 14. His successor will not be appointed for some time.

Activity of Vesuvius.

Naples, April 7.—The continued activity of Mount Vesuvius is proving extremely bad for the vineyards in the region of the mountain, as the vines have been encrusted with volcanic dust. If a rain should follow, before the dust has disappeared, all vegetation will be destroyed. The stream of lava from the new creater has flowed more than two miles. It emits terrific heat. On the side of the crater, toward Pompeii, the lava flow has divided. One stream threatens Ottajano, which has a population of 30,000, and the other Torre del Greco, a community of 30,000. The Mattano says that other craters have opened on Mount Vesuvius, some of them opposite to Naples. The village of Boscotrecas has been completely surrounded by the lava. A panic prevails there, as well as at Torre Annuziata, a town at the southern foot of Vesuvius, and twelve miles southeast of Naples.

London, April 7.—A dispatch to the Central News from Naples says that the village of Boscotrecas, Italy, has been destroyed by the flow of lava from Mount Vesuvius.

Ten persons were injured more or less severely by a series of explosions of gasses in sewers in the neighborhood of Fifty-first street and Eighth avenue New York, last night. The recurrence of these explosions, this being the fourth time they have occurred in as many months, created much excitement. A new theory, that the refuse from automobile garages in that vicinity flowing into the sewers generates the gas which is responsible for the combustion, received favor from many who observed the exlposions. Manhole covers were hurled in all directions. Windows were broken by shores.

Bogus Signatures.

Benjamin H. Goldberger, the commissioner of deeds in New York, who was arrested on Thursday on a charge of forgery in connection with the filing of the petition nominating William R. Hearst for mayor, was examined for several hours yesterday by Assistant District Attorneys Kresel and Whiteside. Nothing will be done, however, until Monday, when some arrests may be made. Goldberger was taken to his home by Detective Bernard Flood, of the district attorney's office, and when he returned to the district attorney's office he had a number of checks and letters from the men who he says employed him to get up the petition, regardless of how the names were obtained. In addition to this documentary evidence, Jos. G. Klein, one of the notaries arrested last fall, has made a statement which bears out Goldberger's story. Goldberger says that he got 10 cents for every name he turned in. He had three days to do the job. Goldberger also says that he got 5,000 of the 6,500 names on the Municipal Ownership League city ticket. He says that all the names he got were forgeries. Some of the men who took acknowledgements were never notaries, although they pretended to be. In all, about thirty notaries were employed.

Cambridge Victorious.

London, April 7.—The annual boat race between crews of Oxford and Cambridge on the Thames today was won by Cambridge by three and a half lengths. The Cambridge crew were the first to arrive at the starting point, and were given an extraordinary ovation. Later the Oxford crew arrived and were received with round after round of cheers. Oxford took the Surrey side of the river, though the weather conditions were such that it made little difference which side was chosen. Both got a good start, Oxford pulling a slightly faster stroke but Cambridge took the lead immediately. The Oxford crew labored hard, but in vain, and the men in the shell were plainly distressed at the end of the race. Four of the Oxford rowers collapsed after finishing and nearly all the others were greatly distressed. Cambridge's men still showed themselves in excellent condition.

Gave Himself Up.

New York, April 7.—Miller H. McGucken, who was with Delphine Love at the time the girl is said to have thrown herself from a third story window of the Hotel Sterling, Seventh avenue and Fiftieth street, early this morning, went to the west Fortieth street police station today, accompanied by a bondsman, and gave himself up to the police. Coroner George F. Shrady, jr., is by no means certain that Miss Love's death was due to suicide, and he had directed the police to find McGucken, who lives at the Hotel Balmoral, Lenox avenue and 114th street, which is owned by his father. Coroner Shrady says his investigation has shown that McGucken and the girl had such a violent quarrel at the hotel that it was necessary for the hotel people to warn them to be quiet, although only a few drinks had been served to them. Shortly after a scream was heard, and then Miss Love was found on the portico.

The proposition is being considered by the business people of the counties through which the proposed road would run, and the only thing which will prevent the construction of the line will be inability to command sufficient capital.

Mr. Green directs that the fund sent Mr. Eggleston be distributed as follows: Hampton Normal and Industrial School, $1,500; Petersburg Normal and Collegiate Institute, $1,000; Farmville Female Normal School, $1,000; rural schools of the State generally, $1,000.

M. P. Conference.

There were two prominent features of business at the session of the Methodist Protestant Conference at West Baltimore Church yesterday—the selection of Rev. Avery Donovan, of Snow Hill, Md., as the endowment secretary of Western Maryland College, at Westminster, and the proposal to establish a new congregation and church at Mount Pleasant, D. C. Other matters of interest were discussed and disposed of during the day.

The retirement of Rev. W. M. Strayer, of Oxford, Md., at his request, for one year, was a conspicuous incident in the day's session, and came as a surprise to a majority of the members of the body.

Most of the day was taken up with a thorough discussion of the financial affairs of Western Maryland College.

The following new trustees of the conference were elected: Revs. J. D. Kinzer and A. W. Mather and Messrs. N. T. Meginniss and J. W. Hering.

During the afternoon session Dr. Lewis, as commissioner of the conference to the joint committee meeting on the union of the Methodist Protestant, Congregational and United Brethen denominations, which was held in Dayton, O., last February, read his report. No recommendations were contained in the report and no action was taken by the conference, as the whole matter is now in the hands of the general conferences of the three denominations. The superannuated fund committee recommended to the conference the assessment of $4,500 on the district for the coming year for the superannuates, which was adopted.

Strike Anticipated.

The Structural Trades Alliance has ordered that all union men shall cease work upon buildings in Norfolk where any non-union men are employed. This order is to take effect next Monday. An agreement was made between the union painters and paper hangers and their employers that the raise of 20 cents a day in the workers' wages which was to go into effect April 1, be postponed until July 1. A considerable number of workmen, dissatisfied over the postponement, have ceased work. The union plumbers are preparing to strike on May 1, unless they are granted an advance of wages of $5 a day for first class and $4 for second class men. That is an advance of $1 a day for each class. The master plumbers declare they will not concede the advance.

Miners and Operators.

New York, April 7.—The representatives of the anthracite coal roads and independent coal companies will meet here in secret conference today to give final consideration to John Mitchell's proposition of arbitrating differences in the anthracite mining industry, and to draft a reply for presentation to the joint meeting of operators and miners on Monday. While it is generally believed that the operators will refuse the proposal, there is ground for the statement that refusal to arbitrate will only apply to those questions that were raised before the anthracite strike commission. The operators, though, will concede a willingness to arbitrate any new questions that have arisen in the region since the award was made and that were incapable of solution by the conciliation board during its existence in the last three years. The declination to arbitrate any of the old questions is a refusal to arbitrate any of the question which John Mitchell has presented at these conferences, for David Wilcox, president of the Deleware & Hudson company, in a public statement has declared that the miners have shown that there are no new questions in the recent proposals of John Mitchell.

John Mitchell's proposal for arbitration is regarded in many ways by the operators as a backdown, who say that arbitration would kill Mitchell's cherished dream for union recognition. It has been Mitchell's great ambition to have trade agreements in the hard coal industry the same as existed in the soft coal field. On the question of recognition Judge Gray in the commission's award declared that "the present constitution of the United Mine Workers of America does not present the most inviting inducement to the operators to enter into contractural relations with it."

New York, April 7.—John Mitchell, President of the United Mine Workers, denied today the charges made by the western bituminous operators that he was for arbitration of the anthracite difficulties, but not for arbitration of the bituminous troubles.

Cleveland, O., April 7.—"Our mines will remain idle until a settlement is reached with the United Mine Workers" said F. H. Brooks, of Columbus, secretary of the Ohio coal operators who met here today, in conference over the strike situation.

"There was no attempt to use strike breakers or to conduct warfare with the union men. The operators have no feeling of bitterness toward the miners. The miners are ignoring their constitution in refusing to arbitrate," said Patrick McBride, a big operator.

Shamokin, Pa., April 7.—The Pennsylvania railroad employes who were suspended last week owing to the coal suspension were ordered to report for next Monday, which causes many people to think the operators intend coming to some satisfactory conclusion with Mitchell next week.

Dowie on a Rage.

Laredo, Tex., April 7.—First Apostle John Alexander Dowie arrived here from Mexico City shortly after six o'clock this morning and left at once in his private car for San Antonio, where, it is understood, he will remain over Sunday. His train is due in San Antonio at one o'clock this afternoon. The deposed General Overseer refused to be seen, being in bed. From reports along the line, however, it is learned that the "prophet" has been in a fine rage ever since his departure for the north. He declared that before the sun has thrice set the Lord will have shown his own anointed a way in which the vast rebellious members shall be routed and driven into the street.

Despite the great mental strain under which Dowie has been laboring, he looks well and eats well. He declared that the Lord had been renewing his strength that he may give battle to the enemies of God and that until he has them beaten he will know no ill health. Dowie wires from San Luis Potosi to apostle Mary McGhee Hall, of San Antonio, to engage a suite of five rooms at the Menger Hotel for himself and a party of five. The rooms are in a remote corner of the hotel, where consultations may be held without fear of molestation. San Antonio is the home of 200 ardent and faithful Dowieites. It is stated that every detail of the campaign against Voliva and Granger and their followers will be planned before Dowie starts north from that city.

Disastrous Fire.

New York, April 7.—William K. Vanderbilt, Payne Whitney and Richard T. Wilson, jr., risked their lives early today fighting a fire which for a time threatened the entire valley section of Monhassett, Long Island, and which was only got under control after Rice's Hotel and seven cottages were in ruins. The hotel, which is owned by John Rice, was a popular summer resort, a structure of five stories. In the hotel last night were Mr. Rice, his two sons, and two daughters, and seven guests. Near the hotel stands the big Monbassett Bay Hotel, and other property of value. The flames started on the third floor of Rice's Hotel, and before they were discovered had dropped to the lower floors and eaten their way through those above. Rice's sons, daughters and the guests managed to escape in their night clothing, but Rice, who had been suffering from rheumatism, had to be carried out and narrowly escaped death. The fire spread from the burning hotel to a near by cottage and ran from cottage to cottage until seven of them had been consumed.

Liberal Candidate Triumphant.

London, April 7.—In the by-election for the northeast, or Eye, division of Suffolk, Mr. Pearson, the liberal candidate, defeated the Marquis of Graham by a vote of 4,568 to 4,871. The liberal majority in the recent general election was 1,717. The election aroused unusual interest on account of the prominent part played by Lady Mary Hamilton, the richest heiress in the United Kingdon. She is engaged to marry the Marquis of Graham, and took an active part in trying to secure his election, asking for votes as a wedding present for herself. Pearson's wife was not to be outdone by Lady Hamilton, and she made speeches in favor of her husband which won him the seat. Nearly all the electors who voted went to the polls in response to the appeals of the ladies.

Girl's Nude Prank for Candy.

Maysville, Ky., April 7.—On a wager of a five-pound box of candy, made with a girl friend, Miss Matilda Grimes, a comely young woman of this place, bade defiance to Madame Grundy and, going to the banks of the Limestone creek, stripped off her clothes and rolled in the mud ten minutes. She then put on her clothes over the mud and returned to her home, apparently none the worse for her unusual escapade.

All this happened Thursday and yesterday tongues began to wag and staid matrons to shake their scandalized heads. Some declare that only an insane person would do "such a disgraceful thing," while others, more charitably inclined, vow that the act of Miss Grimes was merely a thoughtless deed, due to a spirit of innocent dare-devilishness.

Protocol Signed.

Algeciras, Spain, April 7.—The protocol outlining the terms of the agreement on the subject of Morocco was signed today by the delegates to the international conference. The protocol was signed at noon. All the delegates affixed their signatures except the representatives of the Sultan of Morocco, who were without instructions. Ambassador White signed the document for the United States. The Duke of Almodovar, president of the conference was given an ovation by the other delegates as he left the conference. The Duke will entertain the delegates with a banquet tonight. All the delegates will leave here for Madrid on a special train tomorrow.

For Her Daughter's Sake.

Pittsburg, April 7.—On the witness stand in Common Pleas Court, Mrs. Lizzie Lambert Walters, of this city, yesterday afternoon declared that love for her daughter, and a desire to educate her in a girl's school led her to live the life which she has lived since a year ago last November.

When the awful testimony was wrung from the mother, Ruth Walters, the 14-year-old daughter, uttered a scream and fell unconscious to the floor. While she was being carried out, the mother declared to the court: "I have sold my body and soul for my daughter, and I will be satisfied to see her happy. But, rather than give her father possession of her, I will kill both him and her. I mean just what I say."

Assassination of Governor Slepcoff.

St. Petersburg, April 7.—Governor Slepcoff of Tuer, Russia, was assassinated this afternoon. The assassination occurred while the Governor was out driving. A bomb was thrown into his carriage, literally tearing his body to pieces. The coachman was also injured. The force of the concussion smashed all the windows in neighboring houses. The perpetrator of the crime, a young man whose name is not known, was arrested. Governor Slepcoff was probably the most disliked of any of the Russian governors because of his bitter reactionary measures against the people.

International Postal Congress

Rome April 7.—The international postal congress was inaugurated here today in the presence of King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena. Over 200 delegates, representing fifty-eight different countries, were present.

A number of reforms in the international postal service will be discussed. Among these is a plan to reduce the international postage rate to four cents and and the raising of the weight of letters to three quarters of an ounce. Another suggestion is the adoption of a universal postage stamp for international service.

E. C. Swift's Will.

Salem, Mass., April 7.—The will of E. C. Swift, the millionaire packer, was admitted to probate here today. Outside of the bequest of $5,000 to a church at Sagamore, Mass., there was not a public gift. The entire estate is estimated at about $10,000,000, and is left in trust for the benefit of the family of the testator and to two long-time employes of Mr. Swift, who are provided with small annuities.

Three Persons Drowned.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 7.—Shortly before midnight last night while George McDonald, Samuel Callahan, Thomas Delaney, and Mrs. George Copp were taking a ride in a gasoline launch on Cedar river Mrs. Copp began rocking the boat and it capsized. Delaney swam to the shore to summon help, but before he returned the other three had drowned. One body was recovered today.

Presented with Paintings.

Berne, Switzerland, April 7.—Emperor William of Germany has presented, through the German minister here, two paintings of himself and the Imperial family, to the Swiss author and poet, M. Heer. The Kaiser also sent his congratulations to the author on his latest work, the Blau Tager, and ordered several copies of the de luxe editions.

Fatal Termination of a Quarrel.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 7.—In a quarrel at the Pratt and Letheworth iron work in Tonawanda, street, at 11 o'clock this morning, Fred J. Doreumus, aged 19 years, was stabbed and killed by Rudolph Schiller, about the same age. The stabbing was done with a tool known as a scraper, which resembles a sharp file. Schiller has been arrested.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 7.—The stock market today was practically a standstill, because of the money conditions that developed yesterday and the day before. What outside did was generally on the selling side and after the opening prices for the more active issues made declines ranging from small fractions to about one per cent. The range of prices was narrow and trading was without significance.

Holy Week.

The week beginning tomorrow with Palm Sunday is known in the church calendar as Holy Week and will be appropriately observed in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran Churches in which special services will be held.

Palm Sunday, which commemorates Christ's victorious entry into Jerusalem, when the exultant populace strewed His way with palm branches, will be celebrated tomorrow in the above named churches.

In the Catholic church palms will be blessed and distributed at the morning services.

The observance of Holy Week in the Catholic churches includes a series of frequent solemn services. Toward the latter part of the week these services become almost continuous. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the office of the Tenebrae (Darkness) is chanted, the altar, candelabra and other ornaments being draped in black.

Good Friday—the most solemn day of the Christian year—is now observed by many churches other than those of the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran denominations.

The services in the Catholic and Episcopal churches on Holy Saturday breathe a spirit of expectant joy at the coming of Easter morn. The newly made fire is blessed, and from it the sanctuary lamp and paschal candles are lighted. The baptismal water is blessed and the Litany of the Saints is chanted.

Services will be held in this city as follows:

St. Mary's—Tomorrow, blessing of palms and distribution at high mass; Thursday, high mass and procession at 8 o'clock; Friday, mass of presanctified, at 8 o'clock; Saturday, blessing of new fire and baptismal font; 7 o'clock Sunday, solemn high mass and sermon by Father Bowden.

Christ Church—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 7 a. m.; Holy Thursday (Holy Communion), 8 p. m.; Good Friday, service and sermon, 11 a. m; Easter Even, 5:15 p. m.

St. Paul Church—Monday, 5 p. m.; Tuesday, 5 p. m; Wednesday, 11 a. m.; and 7:30 p. m.; Thursday, Holy Communion 7 a. m.; Evening prayer, 5 p. m.; Good Friday, 11 a. m.; Easter Even, (Baptism), 5 p. m.

Grace Church—Tuesday, Evening Prayer and Address, 4:30 p. m.; Thursday, Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m.; Evening Prayer and Address, 4:30 p. m; Good Friday—Morning Prayer and Address, 10:30 a. m.; Passion Service, 12 to 3 p. m; Evening Prayer and Address, 7:30 p. m.; Saturday (Easter Even), Evening Prayer and Holy Baptism, 4:30 p. m.

Immanuel Lutheran—Good Friday at 11 a. m.

Jewish Passover.

The Jewish Passover begins on Monday of the coming week, when all of the Jewish world will turn their thoughts to the delivery of the Jewish nation from the Egyptian bondage, the greatest period in the history of this people, which will be commemorated with the "Feast of Unleavened Bread." The term Passover is derived from the passing of the Angel of Death over the houses of the Israelites, when he slew the first born of the Egyptians. The Feast of Unleavened Bread is used because during the eight days observed by the orthodox Jews and the seven days observed by the reformed Jews no leaven bread is eaten. This commemorates the fact that in the hurried departure from the persecutions of Egypt the children of Israel were forced to carry as a means of sustenance the unbaked dough, which was baked by the heat of the sun in the desert. The first day of the Passover is the anniversary of the exodus. The seventh day is the anniversary of the passing through the Red sea. The first and second and seventh and eighth days are observed by the orthodox Jews as holy days. The reformed Jews observe only the first and seventh days as holy days. The intervening days are minor holidays. The holy days are observed by services in the synagogue in the morning and evening, and with family services led by the [illegible] of the house, after the evening [illegible] in the synagogue. A portion [illegible] service in the homes is devoted to recounting the history of the exodus from Egypt.

Services will be held in the Synagogue in this city next Monday night at 7:30 o'clock, and on tomorrow night week at the same hour.

Alibi Established.

Joseph E Kandall, who was arrested several days ago at the instance of Samuel Edwards, who charged him with entering his house on west Duke street in the night for the purpose of committing a felony, was dismissed by Justice Caton in the Police Court yesterday evening, the accused establishing an alibi. Kandall was represented by Mr. Edmund Burke.

Edwards alleged that about one o'clock last Sunday morning he was awakened by his mother, Mrs. Jennie Edwards, who had made an outcry. He arose, procured a pistol and discharged it at a man he was satisfied was Kandall who was running down the steps.

Mrs. Edwards in her deposition said she was awakened about one o'clock Sunday morning by Kandall who had entered her room. She was positive that Kandall was the intruder, but she did not enter into all the details.

It was shown by the defense that Kandall had been a visitor to the house, and that after he was aware a warrant had been sworn out against him he went to the residence of the Edwards, plead his innocence of the charge urged against him and offered to accompany Samuel Edwards to the station house.

Conductor Davis, of the electric railway, testified that Kandall went to Washington on the 9:30 train from this city Saturday night and did not return on the 10:30 or on the last train that left Washington, the witness having been in charge of both.

A young man who is employed with Kandall at a Washington dairy averred that he accompanied the defendant to Washington on the 9:30 train, and testified to accompanying him to the dairy and seeing him go to bed that night. Others corroborated the testimony of the preceding witnesses, one alleging that he saw Kandall in bed at the dairy at 11 o'clock and another at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. Several other witnesses had been summoned for the defense, but they were not put upon the stand. Justice Caton dismissed the accused.

Relics of Other Days.

A day or two ago Mr. Geo. T. French, who works at the Washington navy yard and lives in Twining City, while plowing up a piece of ground about three hundred yards north of the site of the bridge which the Americans burned in 1814 to keep the British from crossing the Anacostia river to come into Washington, found an English copper coin about the size of an old fashioned cent. It was in a good state of preservation, as the date and letters were perfectly legible. One side has the figure of a man's head and "Georgivs III, Rex," and the otherside "Britannia," the English coat of arms, and 1775. Mr. French also at the same time found an English uniform button made of copper showing conclusively, that the coin and button must have been dropped by some of the British during the trying times when they were so near the Capitol. The piece of ground described above has not been cultivated before in the memory of the oldest resident.

Lost His Pocketbook.

Mr. W. H. Brown, salesman for R. A. Golden & Co., of Washington, lost his pocketbook yesterday afternoon in the neighborhood of the Washington and Ohio Railroad depot. There was about $300 in the pocketbook, including bills and checks. Later in the afternoon Mr. Samuel Elliott and two companions were walking up north Lee street when they passed a dog carrying a wallet in its mouth. They secured the book and upon opening it found a number of checks, but no money. Mr Elliot, who is employed by Mr. W. H. May & Son, turned the pocketbook over to that firm, and the police having been notified of the find, Mr. Brown soon appeared and identified the lost pocketbook and its contents. The money ($126) had been removed by the original finder, who had thrown the pocketbook away, which had in turn been picked up by the dog.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Mary Brooks, arrested by Officer Bell for drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

John Hughes, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Bernard Brady, arrested by Officer Garvey charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

John McCrary, colored, arrested by Officer Jones charged with stealing goods in Augusta county, had his case continued.

Tessie Criss, arrested by Officer Knight charged with vagrancy, was dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

Was Fleeing from Arrest.

As had been stated in the Gazette, the body of the young man who was killed by a Southern Railway train near Orange last Wednesday night was identified as that of of Thomas Reardon, whose father conducts a grocery on Lincoln street, Anacostia, D. C. A pawn ticket in the name of Thomas Ribbon was the means of identification. His brother, William Reardon, went to Orange to claim the body. Young Reardon was an apprentice in the navy yard. He left home Monday, after two of his companions had been arrested on a charge of unbecoming conduct. He had been informed that a warrant was issued for his arrest.

Backward Season.

Shad and herring are still in the lower river and they seem indisposed to move toward fresh water. No catches are reported except in Chesapeake Bay and tributaries near the mouth of the Potomac. Mr. Thomas Perry received thirty barrels of fish from the lower river via the Baltimore steamer last night.

There is no animation whatever at Fishtown, although everything has been made ready in anticipation of receipts. Considerable pessimism exists as to the result of the fishing season of 1906.

Prices of all varieties of fish are well maintained.

A boy was severely bitten by a dog yesterday on Patrick street, between Prince and King streets.

Double-tracking.

The electric railway company is engaged in double-tracking the road between King street extended and the culvert of the Washington-Southern Railway. The work of widening the trestle over Hooff's run is now in progress. When the additional track shall have been laid the danger at this curve will have been eliminated, while trains will be enabled to pass in and out of the city with more expedition. The double track at present ends at the south entrance to the railway culvert, or at Spring Park, and the crews of north or south bound trains are unable to see but a few yards ahead on the single-track curve. A serious accident, it will be remembered, occurred on this curve a year or two ago, while there have been several narrow escapes of trains at that point.

E. H. S. Examinations.

The following boys were distinguished in all of their March examinations at the Episcopal High School, near Alexandria: A. M. Blackford, L. M. Blackford, jr., R. F. Blackford, J. H. Bowen, F. A. Brown, B. K. Conway, C. W. Daniel, G. G. Easley, W. Q. Gallaher, P. H. Goodwyn, C. S. Grant, Berryman Green, jr., G. J. Hopkins, B. L. Howell, W. J. Mann, jr., F. M. Massie, R. K. Massie, jr., J. B. D. Taliaferro, W. H. Taylor, IV, J. G. Wheeler, F. F. Whittle, R. L. Whittle.

Mrs. Wm. A. Moore, sr., has returned from quite an extended visit to her daughter Mrs. Piser.

Miss Abbie Sullivan, of Del Ray, is visiting friends in Manassas.

Mr. P. F. Gorman and son, Dr. E. A. Gorman, who left a few days ago for Dayton, Ohio, to attend the funeral of the late Joseph Breen, have been called home by the serious illness of Dr. Gorman's little daughter Regina.

Lady Maccabees.

The bloomer social and hobo drill given by the Lady Maccabees on Thursday night in the hall over the Alexandria National Bank was a decided success. Miss Ewing's violin class rendered several fine selections while the rest of programme was much enjoyed, especially the hobo drill given by the drill team of the Lady Maccabees. Mrs. Adams received the 1st prize and Mrs. Jones the 2nd. At the close of the programme the Lady Commander gave an original poem wherein Mandy tells Josiah the secret about the Bloomers.

Property Sales.

Mr. John D. Normoyle, real estate agent, has sold for Mr. Frank Hume, of Alexandria county, five building lots, with the improvements thereon, in St. Elmo, to Mr. Harry T. Jones, of Washington.

Also for the heirs of John McGahey, two-story frame dwelling No. 311 north Henry street, to Mr. Orlando Deavers.

Also to Anna H. Williams, building lot at the southeast corner of Pitt and Pendleton streets.

Police Commissioners.

A called meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night. All the commissioners were present. Mayor Paff read certain recommendations concerning the working of the police force together with plans for increasing its efficiency, and it was determined to give the matters presented by the Mayor earnest attention. The board will hold another meeting next Monday night.

Order Contested.

Tessie Criss, who was recently ordered to leave the city, was arrested this morning and taken before Justice Caton who again ordered her to leave, but instead of doing so she employed counsel and will contest the right of the Police Justice to make such an order. The woman was charged with selling cocaine and with disorderly conduct.

Resumed Operations.

Operations at the Broomelaw Brick Works, which were suspended during the winter, were resumed today with a full force of brick makers and a large output is expected during the season. The demand for bricks is good and the quality of those made at the Broomelaw Works always command a ready sale.

WHEN SHALL THESE THINGS BE?

The world of thoughtless persons conclude that there is no answer to the question put by the disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ concerning the end of the world. Yet the answer given is the most complete and explicit in all the Scriptures, and to the Christian given by the highest authority. In the last of the series of Talks on Truth-Full Topics, Mr. Clarence E. Fowler, of Washington, D. C., will present the times and seasons of the Bible in a logical lucid and reasonable manner, powerfully impressive to either skeptic or Christian. The address will be delivered without any charge on Monday night, April 9, at 7:45, in the hall over the Alexandria National Bank. Everyone is welcome.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Boy's Pitiable Condition.

Charles Kelly, 14 years of age, who lives with his parents in Fairmont, near Richmond, has been unable for seven years to swallow any solid foods. He weighs about 30 pounds, and, consequent upon his lack of nourishment, has no muscular development. This pitiable condition was brought about when the little patient was a strong and healthy youngster 7 years old. One day by mistake he drank a diluted solution of lye, or caustic potash, which is used in making soap. The corrosive power of lye, as a rule, brings about fatal results. In this case, however, the solution was greatly diluted and remedies were applied at once. Probably irritated by the poison and the emetics hurriedly used, the little fellow's throat contracted, cutting off all communication with the digestive organs. A number of operations proved unsuccessful, the patient wasting away to a mere shadow. At last the plan of feeding him with a silver spoon through an incision in the stomach was adopted. This and his ability to breathe have kept him alive. Occasionally he can swallow a little water.

Snake Around Her Ankle.

At a meeting of the Salvation Army in New York last night an aged man, who was quite nervous, was telling of his wicked past and good resolves to keep away from drink in the future, when Mrs. Sophie Roezer shrilly exclaimed that a snake had wound itself about her ankle. Instead of going to the woman's aid the crowd rushed away from her, and she fell to the floor in a faint. Unwinding itself from Mrs. Roezer's ankle, the snake, which was of the garter family, began squirming about the hall. Leaping upon chairs and tables, men and women clung to each other and cried for help. Fearing some calamity had happened, 200 persons gathered at the doors and prevented those inside from getting out. Policeman Hagen was among them, and after fighting his way into the hall killed the snake and threw it into the street, where a crowd of boys tied it to a stick and marched proudly off. Taking up again the awful story of his life, the self-confessed bad man took a fresh start and the meeting went on as usual.

Clean up and get ready for spring. Take a few Early Risers. These famous little pills cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels and give the blood a chance to purify itself. They relieve headache, sallow complexion, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Suspended by His Fingers.

Suspended by three fingers of his right hand for thirty minutes in an unoccupied house, unable to touch his feet to the floor or to release himself, was the agonizing experience of Henry Stonard, a carpenter, in Ursdilla, N. Y., Wednesday night. Stonard was inspecting a house which he contemplated occupying, and he ascended to the attic, drawing himself up through a manhole, covered by a tight-fitting trap door. In descending, the door dropped upon the fingers of one hand, pinning them, just as he was about to drop to the floor, only a few inches below his toes. His weight and struggles only wedged the door against his fingers the tighter. He was unable to raise the door with his other hand, and there he hung for half an hour, until neighbors heard his groans and discovered his unconscious form suspended from the trap door. He is now in a serious condition.

A Young Mother of 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric Bitters, which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Sets Stomach, Liver and Kidneys right, purifies the blood and cures Malaria, Biliousness and Weaknesses. Wonderful Nerve Tonic. Price 50c. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton and Company.
